Result 1:
(Absentee Owner Hazard):

A failure of incentives occurs because the cooperative Nash equilibrium between the bribe-taker and the bribe-giver ignores the public interest. The public is the absent third party, which owns the asset, not represented by anyone in the Nash bargain.